

Tucker Business Association

July 2, 2008

For immediate release

TUCKER BUSINESS ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES 2 NEW VP'S

TUCKER – The Tucker Business Association (TBA) announces the promotion of two of its own into leadership positions.

Milton Kirby

Effective immediately, Milton Kirby, president of Allied Logistics in Tucker assumes the mantle of Vice President of Member Development. Honey Van De Kreke, president of Elrep Sales in Tucker, has been tapped as Vice President of Media Relations. Kirby and Van De Kreke replace outgoing board members Jose Nodar and Eric Main, respectively.

Beth O'Neill, president of TBA, says the new additions will benefit the membership of the Tucker business community.

“Milton and Honey bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the table,” said O'Neill. “Their wisdom and influence will further allow the Tucker Business Association to promote the interests of our members.”

Honey Van De Kreke

About TBA: More than 50 years ago, TBA was established by local corporations and independent professionals to promote and enhance the Tucker business community. Monthly breakfast meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month at 7:15 a.m. at Matthews Cafeteria on Main Street in downtown Tucker. The cost of breakfast is included in the $125 annual membership dues.

For more information on the Tucker Business Association, contact: Burke Brennan at 404-687-2738, bbrenna@co.dekalb.ga.us