GLOBAL LOGISTICS & TRANSPORTATION LEADER RANKED IN THE TOP
25 BY THE ATLANTA TRIBUNE FOR 2010

ATLANTA, GA – Allied Logistics, Inc. (Allied) ranked number 17 in the Atlanta Tribune: The Magazine's Top 25 for 2010. Allied was recognized in the July issue of the Atlanta Tribune.

The Atlanta Tribune recognizes the top minority companies; headquartered in the metro Atlanta every year. These companies are chosen for their innovation in the marketplace, increased core service offerings, and business excellence.

"Debuting on the Atlanta Tribune's Top 25 is a great honor. As a long standing certified minority business enterprise, we have been able to leverage minority certification to market ourselves to corporate America. This ranking will show not only our growth, but our capabilities as a strong business that happens to be minority owned and operated.", stated Milton Kirby, president, Allied Logistics.

Allied Logistics, Inc. is an Atlanta, GA based supply chain & freight transportation solutions provider. The company places a premium on providing sourced and dedicated freight transportation alternatives to meet demanding needs & schedules.
